Respected Sir,

I, the undersigned, beg to submit this application of mine for your kind consideration and favourable orders.

I request you to get me sanctioned the necessary permission to edit a monthly magazine in Kannada, by name "Jayabharathi" (ಜಯಭಾರತಿ). The magazine will be of about the shape and size of The Indian Review of Madras or The Modern Review of Calcutta. It will have 64 or 72 pages. I request that the permission may be kindly granted as early as possible, as I have to negotiate and arrange for the printing and the publishing of the magazine after I secure the permission for editing.

In the magazine, I propose to deal with historical, economical, social and political subjects and the present day problems of India and the world in general. The main object of the magazine will be to afford general education to the Kannada reading public and help to advance the progress of the country in all respects.

In this connection, I beg to state, that I was the Editor and publisher of the Kannada weekly "Janmabhumi" from Tirthahalli in 1928 and 1929. I have kept up my journalistic habits after I stopped the above weekly on account of financial troubles.

With reference to your Memo No.J1.P.R.736/34-35 dated the 2nd April 1935 regarding the application of Mr. C. Subba Rao, Journalist, for the grant of permission to edit and publish a Kannada Monthly Magazine styled "Jaya Bharatha" I have the honour to state that Mr. C. Subba Rao is a graduate of the Mysore University. He was formerly editing and publishing a Kannada monthly magazine styled "Janmabhumi" at Shimoga between 1928 and 1929, but discontinued the same on account of financial disability. He was also contributing articles to several Kannada periodicals both local and foreign, like the "Jayakarnataka" of Mangalore etc. He pays a khist of about Rs.100/- on account of his lands in Thirthahalli Taluk.

He says that he would publish the said Magazine on the style of the "Modern Review" or the "Indian Review", dealing with all general matters, so that there might be a Kannada Magazine published at least once a month containing all topical subjects, useful to the public.

Mr. C. Subba Rao has not so far come to notice of any objectionable activities in Bangalore. His character is also learnt to be good.

Under the circumstances I am of opinion that the permissionprayed for by the applicant to edit and publish a Kannada Montly styled "Jayabharatha" may be granted.

Now, I beg to place before you a Special request to grant me an extension of four months' period to make again necessary arrangements for the printing of the magazine. I am now engaged to make proper arrangements.

In 1928 I was editing and publishing "Janmabhumi" - a Kannada weekly paper from Tirthahalli in Shimoga district.

As I was suffering from fever for the last one week, I could not apply earlier.
